WELCOME TO FURRY MIGRATION 2017

IT'S AMAZING to say that after over 2 years of working on this year's convention I can finally write "Welcome to Furry Migration 2017". It has been a long road to get to this year's convention, but we all did it. And we couldn't do it without the heroes in our lives.

Our con theme, "Heroes Divided," is based on superheroes. They, just like the furry fandom, rely on the real heroes - the artists, the writers, the performers, and the fans. Without them, the heroes would not exist or get any recognition of their deeds and accomplishments.

This convention is the same way. The artists, writers, performers, dealers, guests of honor, panelists, volunteers and staff are the lifeblood for the convention to exist. They are the heroes of this convention.

But do you know who is the true super hero of this con?

YOU!

You are the one who is going out and participating in our Heroes' Divided challenges, attending our events, and most importantly, making memories for our friends and family who are at the con.

So stop reading this and go be a hero.

VOLUNTEER FOR A HERO'S REWARD!

Furry Migration is always looking for citizens to aid heroes in their quest. Volunteer for two hours and get a wristband, at six hours you'll gain entrance to the Volunteer Consuite, ten hours is a special memento, and at 15 hours you will receive a 2017 convention t-shirt.

EVEN HEROES NEED A BREAK

We all know that "heroes never rest" is just an urban myth. Join us in Heroes' Rest (Consuite) for snacks, munchies, soda, and more. All heroes and villains are welcome! But beware, after 9:30PM, villains take to the streets, and to the Consuite, as Villains' Lair opens.

For those who're 21+, the Villains' Lair will also have a cash bar within. We hope to see you here!

We have bi-weekly furmeets, fursuit romps, community bowling nights, and a ton of other events. It's our goal to provide a safe and fun environment to socialize with fellow furries, and to work together with other nonprofits outside of the furry fandom to help educate the general public and lend a paw in our local communities.

Come be a part of the hundreds of furries and furry friendly humans that make Minnesota Furs one of the most vibrant communities you will find anywhere!

HEROES DIVIDED!

Months have passed since the COLLAR act was passed in an effort to bring oversight to super-powered heroes of the city, but the initiative has caused strife and infighting. Meanwhile an insidious group of villains lurks in the shadows, ready to take advantage of the unrest to launch their campaign of chaos!

Now the heroes of CAPES and MASKS are gathering together nearby. Deep in discussions with moderators from HEEL, the heroes hope to come to a compromise, one that will decide the fate of the COLLAR act and the city itself. Is this the chance the villains of BAAAD are looking for? Or will the heroes come together in time?

YOU CAN HELP DECIDE!

C.A.P.E.S.

Costumed Adventurers Protecting Endangered Serenity

These heroes are open about who they are and what they do. They are proud to defend the city and happy that they can help. While they may feel constrained by some of the new regulations they are under, upholding the law is the priority.

M.A.S.K.S.

Morally Against State
Kontrolled Superheroes

These heroes are hesitant about the new government regulations and what it might mean for them, as well as their families and friends. They feel the new law is more about protecting the city council rather than the citizens.

JOIN A TEAM OF HEROES!

Are you a hero set to help save the city? Make your allegiance known! Do you align with CAPES and their proud mission to uphold /all/ the laws of the city? Or do you support MASKS and their desire to fight evil, no matter what the cost?

To join CAPES or MASKS, simply look for the "Hero Sign-up" banner to get a faction marker for your badge and show everyone which side you support!

SUPPORT YOUR SIDE!

The heroes of CAPES and MASKS, as well as the agents of HEEL, want to know which side you support. All citizens can earn points for the faction they support through volunteering and participating in convention events!

Just by attending you have the opportunity to make your opinion known. To cast your vote and give the points you earn to the side you support, look for the "HEEL Approved Polling Place" banner.

FURRY WRITERS' GUILD

with President Makyo & Vice President Watts Martin

The Furry Writers' Guild was founded in 2011 to promote quality writing in anthropomorphic fiction and to inform, elevate, and support its creators. While there have been free archive sites for furry stories for nearly as long as the internet has been around, there's a growing small press community producing novels, anthologies, and even fiction awards. Finding information about these publishers and the furry writing community, though, isn't always as easy as it should be; that's where the FWG comes in.

A volunteer-run organization with no membership dues, full FWG membership is open to authors with published works in qualified markets—but we provide support and community to anyone who's interested in furry fiction, both as writers and readers. Approaching 200 members, the FWG is heading into its seventh year with new plans and projects for promoting furry work, providing new opportunities to members, and expanding the membership.

"We are a society celebrating imagination, inspiring creativity, and building our community all through service and education."

MNFurs' partner, the Geek Partnership Society (GPS), is a volunteer-run non-profit, and is dedicated to supporting the incredible diversity and energy of the Twin Cities geek community. We don't run conventions, we run the rest of the year! We host fun and inspiring events, do public outreach with our partners through Twin Cities Pride (Geeks@Pride) and Art-A-Whirl, as well as help a bunch of the local conventions put on the best show possible by providing expertise, equipment, movie licenses, volunteers, and meeting and storage space.

IRON PEN & IRON ARTIST

Iron Pen & Iron Artist are Furry Migration's annual test of authorial or artistic mettle! We give you a few guidelines and then pit you against the clock to create an original piece of fiction or art.

Even if you don't fancy yourself an artist or author, we invite you to view and vote for the winning submissions!

Iron Pen submissions should be no longer than 1,000 words in the form of a story or poetry, while art pieces should be on a letter-sized page.

Both should include the concept of "Migration" or a native Minnesota species, as well as the "secret ingredient" for 2017, which is:

2016 WINNER • MY SECRET ORIGIN • SARAH “ATARA” BRANNAN

Look, I'm coming to you because you're my doctor and I trust you. I can trust you, right?

Ok, I'm going to unwrap this quilt from my head. Please don't laugh.

You're laughing. I can tell. Your shoulders are shaking.

Doc, please! This is serious! I need help! I can't live like this!

What happened? Well, see... I love to go camping. It helps clear my head and relax me. So I was camping out near Franz Jevne two days ago. I'd hiked into the woods a few miles after dinner. It was starting to get dark when I heard this crashing coming through the brush behind me.

I turned around and saw something green glowing through the trees. It was the kind of green you see in video games around toxic waste, you know?

I barely had time to register the green glow when this gigantic bull moose burst through the trees... and it was glowing.

I don't know, doc. The whole thing was glowing, like it had been sprinkled with glow-in-the-dark paint. Maybe it was radioactive or something.

I – I guess I screamed and fell backwards. Who wouldn't, you know? Getting jumped by a glowing green moose like that. Before I could do anything, the moose was standing over me, and then he leaned down and bit me on my shoulder.

This is really not the time to be quoting Monty Python, doc.

Here, I'll pull down my shirt and show you. See? Huge bite right there on my shoulder.

But damn, it hurt. I screamed again and the moose let go. I grabbed my shoulder and rolled away from the moose, and by the time I looked up again it was gone.

I made my way back to my campsite. I was thinking I needed to call someone. Do you call a ranger if you got bit by a glowing green moose? But as soon as I got back to my tent I just collapsed. I was shivering and shaking, and everything hurt like I had a fever. I climbed into my sleeping bag and passed out.

Doc, I was sure I was going to die. I was in agony all night. My head felt like it was going to explode.

And when I woke up in the morning... I looked like this.

Yes, like a moose! You sure have a gift for saying the obvious, doc.

I've grown at least a foot, so none of my clothes fit. That's why I had all these quilts wrapped around me. This schnozz is so distracting. I know that you see your nose all the time and just filter it out, but how am I supposed to filter out something that sticks so far out from my face?

And if nothing else, you gotta do something about these antlers. Driving back home and over here was ridiculous. It takes me fifteen minutes just to carefully navigate my way through the car door so I don't get hung up on anything, and then when I'm finally in the driver's seat I have to lean so far over it looks like I'm trying to sit in the passenger seat. I was terrified about getting pulled over.

So, doc. What happened to me? What can you do?

That's not funny, doc. I am not "Moose Man."

Yeah, well, Peter Parker didn't shrink down to the size of a spider and grow four extra limbs. He could blend in. I can't! I have a job! I have a life! How am I supposed to carry on like this?

Yes, I'd love a referral.

You said this Dr. Xavier has experience with issues like this? That's great. No offense, doc, but hopefully he has better advice than "put on a spandex bodysuit and fight crime."

Not all rules and situations are covered by the code of conduct and following common sense will cover those not outlined. As an attendee of Furry Migration you are expected to follow all hotel policies, local, state and federal laws and regulations. This includes excessive noise from guest rooms.

Convention badges must be displayed at all times in convention common spaces and function spaces. This also includes fursuiters and cosplayers. Distribution and production of counterfeit badges are expressly forbidden.

CONVENTION OPERATIONS

FM's Operations Department and Senior Staff Members are here to serve and assist the attendees of FM by promoting the fulfillment of the convention's Code of Conduct, and to answer any questions you may have about the convention. They will be identifiable by a vest or a staff badge. As such, we please ask all attendees to follow their instructions within reason. This includes relinquishing of your membership badge.

If you have a complaint about any action taken by a staff member or the Operations Department, you may take the matter up with the Department Head on duty for Operations, the Division Heads, or finally the Convention Chairman.

ALCOHOL & ILLEGAL SUBSTANCES

Furry Migration believes in the responsible adult consumption of alcoholic beverages. The convention does not directly serve alcohol to the membership. This does not include room parties, hotel services, or guest rooms. Furry Migration does not condone the use of illegal substances.

COSTUME & REPLICA WEAPONS

Due to safety and legal concerns firearms, working projectile weapons, replica firearms or deactivated weapons are not allowed at FM. FM reserves the right to define 'replica' in these cases.

No realistic-looking state/federal law enforcement or military uniforms outside of military dress uniform.

Edged weapons must be sheathed and peace bound within convention space. See a senior staff member or the Operations Department for more details. Temporary exceptions may be made for newly purchased weapons carried DIRECTLY outside convention space. If your prop is of the 'large and unwieldy' variety please be mindful of people and property around you.

Brandishing or unsheathing any weapon for any reason is not allowed, and will result in the confiscation of the weapon for the duration of the convention. Repeated offences will result in the revocation of your membership for the duration of the event.

The safety of our members and hotel guests is our No.1 concern.

DEALING WITH HARASSMENT

If you feel that you are being harassed or subjected to prejudiced or unwelcome behavior, if you are aware of others being harassed or subjected to prejudiced or unwelcome behavior, or if you notice someone behaving inappropriately (such as violating hotel or convention policies), please come to Operations, a Safe Place location, or a staff member. You will receive assistance, to the best of our abilities.

If someone tells you "no" or asks to be left alone, your interaction with them is over. Do not follow or attempt to disrupt their convention experience in any way. All journalists, media photographers, and any other members of the press are required to display an official Furry Migration Press Badge. They are also required to be accompanied by a member of FM's staff while on the convention hotel's property.

The name "Furry Migration" is a registered service mark of Minnesota Furs Inc., and must not be used in any fashion that infringes on that mark. Members agree to remove from circulation or publication any image, statement or recording that is in the legal opinion of Minnesota Furs, Inc. misrepresents or defames its service mark.

ADA SERVICE ANIMALS & PETS

Furry Migration observes and follows the most current ADA guidelines for service animals. Service Animals will be issued a badge to prevent further questions by the membership. This badge will be issued after approval of the Operations Department.

See this link for more information about the ADA's qualifications of Service Animals: https://www.ada.gov/service_animals_2010.pdf

While the Hyatt allows animals in private sleeping rooms, convention space is considered private function space rented by Furry Migration where only service animals are allowed.

SALES OF MERCHANDISE

Sales of any products or goods is prohibited outside of designated areas.

VIOLATIONS OF ACOC

Violations of the Code of Conduct above come with penalties. These penalties include but are not limited to verbal warning, written warning, confiscation of your badge, revocation of membership, temporary ban, or permanent ban. These penalties are in place to prevent unsafe behavior and situations from impacting the convention, our personnel, our resources, or our relationship with the hotel. Penalties may be increased depending on the severity of the offence.

If a member is removed by the hotel management from its premises for any reason, FM will revoke current membership and deny future membership for the duration of the hotel ban.

FM reserves the right to change, amend, or modify these rules at any time without prior notice. Any changes to the Code of Conduct will be visibly posted at registration at the convention, will be included with the convention book, and will be noted on the Furry Migration website if changes occur outside two weeks of the start of the convention.

ABOUT OUR CHARITY

Furry Migration is pleased to partner with Leech Lake Legacy as our charity for 2017!

Leech Lake Legacy is a Minnesota-based, non-discriminatory animal welfare organization.

Founded in April 2011, when a group of animal-loving friends got together to help displaced pets in the Leech Lake area.

When not helping pet owners find low-cost veterinary care for their fuzzy or scaled friends, they travel the greater Twin Cities area providing transport for abandoned or surrendered pets to homes or no-kill shelters.

In addition to the loving homes they find for our fuzzy friends, they also provide donation-subsidized healthcare treatment. These include spaying and neutering services to improve pet health and control overpopulation, parasite removal, and even microchipping.

We hope you will help us in welcoming them this year, and help all of our furry friends by donating to their organization! Learn more about Leech Lake Legacy on their website at LeechLakeLegacy.org

WHAT IF I WANT MY FOOD ON A STICK?

You're in luck! The Minnesota State Fair – the largest in the country – is happening during Furry Migration! It's a great place to visit if you need a break from con life, but expect to be there most of the day; there's an awful lot to see (and eat)!

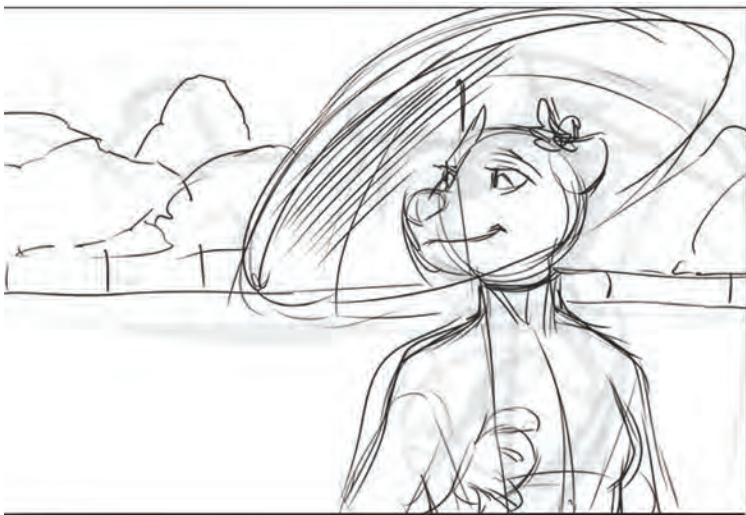

I WANT TO GO TO THERE!

A shuttle runs from the nearby Dunwoody College of Technology for a round-trip cost of $5 (cash or app). Fair admission is $14.
